Blazek, Stocker, Flynn and Polen Join Arment Dietrich

Diane Blazek joins Arment Dietrich (www.armentdietrich.com) as the vice president charged with strategic business development. Diane brings an extensive background in business growth, marketing, and communications. Most recently, Diane was president and publisher of Ball Publishing, a division of Ball Horticultural Company.

Tara Dunne Stocker joins as a managing supervisor with nearly two decades of experience in strategic public and community relations for both the for-profit and non-profit sectors. Most recently, Tara was the managing principal of Chaffee Group, a boutique integrated marketing agency.

Tanya Flynn joins as a managing supervisor, responsible for client relations, program development, and media strategy. Most recently she was a corporate communications manager at CareerBuilder.com where she was a company spokesperson and managed public relations for the company's international offices.

Wes Polen joins as the director of human resources and finance, with an emphasis on employee relations. Before teaming with Arment Dietrich full-time, Wes was an operations officer, handling human resources and financial business materials at a Chicago-based consultancy firm.
